

- On-Course Direct Coaching from green to tee after all players have putted out and before first player is ready to play on next tee. Such coaching and conversation may include advice but shall not delay pace of play.
- Outside allowed "direct" coaching period the designated school coach may: monitor sportsmanship, assist in determining and/or report possible rules violations to tournament rules officials and players, assist in finding balls, remind players of rules options, report conduct violations, assist with weather delays.
- *Outside the allowed "direct" coaching period the designated school coach may not: give advice to players in violation of USGA Rule 8-1 such as club selection, method of making a stroke, influence of determination of play, make rulings or assess penalties on USGA Rules communicate other team members' performance, give physical assistance (carry, clubs, rake bunkers, tend flagsticks, challenge scores), use cell phones or devices to communicate with players. Please read MHSAA Protocols